PRESS RELEASE

Suspect Who Attempted to Run Down Police Officer Sought

Chester County District Attorney Tom Hogan advises the public to be aware of Tyrell Winchester. Winchester is wanted for attempted murder and related charges stemming from an incident yesterday evening where he allegedly attempted to run over a Willistown Township police officer in a stolen vehicle.

District Attorney Hogan stated, "This suspect should be considered very dangerous. He used a stolen vehicle to try to run over a police officer. He should turn himself into police immediately before anyone gets hurt. If anyone has information on his whereabouts, call 911."

The defendant is a resident of 2021 South 20th Street, Philadelphia, Pennsylvania.

The Pennsylvania State Police, Willistown Police, Delaware County District Attorney's Office, Chester County District Attorney's Office, and Chester County Sheriff's Office are working together with all surrounding police departments to locate the suspect. The suspect was last seen in the area of Ridley Creek State Park in Delaware County.
