E. All recovered materials and records will be curated in accordance with 36 C.F.R. Part 79 and the curation guidelines developed by the Pennsylvania Historical and Museum Commission (May 2006). The County will be responsible for the curation fee of $350 per cubic foot.

3. Administrative Stipulations

A. Personnel Qualifications

The County shall ensure that all work carried out pursuant to this MOA is carried out by, or under the direct supervision of, a person or persons meeting, at a minimum, the Secretary

B. Late Discoveries

If any unanticipated discoveries of historic properties or archaeological sites are encountered during the implementation of this undertaking, the County shall suspend work in the area of the discovery, and the County shall immediately notify the FHWA. In compliance with 36 C.F.R. § 800.13, FHWA shall notify, within 24 hours, the Advisory Council on Historic Preservation (“ACHP”), the SHPO, PennDOT, and, if applicable, federally recognized tribal organizations that may attach religious and/or cultural significance to the affected property. The SHPO, the FHWA, PennDOT, and Tribal representatives, as appropriate, may conduct a joint field view within 72 hours of the notification to the FHWA. The FHWA, in consultation with the appropriate parties, will determine an appropriate treatment of the discovery prior to the resumption of construction activities in the area of the discovery.

C. Amendments

Any party to this MOA may propose to the FHWA that the MOA be amended, whereupon FHWA shall consult with the other parties to this MOA to consider such an amendment. Section 36 C.F.R. § 800.6(c)(7) shall govern the execution of any such amendment.

D. Resolving Objections

a. Should any party to this MOA object in writing to FHWA regarding any action carried out or proposed with respect to this Project or implementation of this MOA, FHWA shall consult with the objecting party to resolve the objection. If after initiating such consultation FHWA determines that the objection cannot be resolved through consultation, FHWA shall forward all documentation relevant to the objection to the ACHP, including FHWA’s proposed response to the objection. Within thirty (30) days after receipt of all pertinent documentation, the ACHP shall exercise one of the following options:

1) Advise FHWA that the ACHP concurs in FHWA’s proposed response to the objection, whereupon FHWA shall respond to the objection accordingly;

2) Provide FHWA with recommendations, which FHWA shall take into account in reaching a final decision regarding its response to the objection; or
3) Notify FHWA that the objection will be referred for comment pursuant to C.F.R. § 800.7, and proceed to refer the objection and comment. The resulting comment shall be taken into account by FHWA in accordance with C.F.R. § 800.7(c)(4) and Part 110(1) of NHPA.

b. Should the ACHP not exercise one of the above options within thirty (30) days after receipt of all pertinent documentation, FHWA will assume the ACHP’s concurrence in its proposed response to the objection.

c. FHWA shall take into account any ACHP recommendation or comment provided in accordance with this stipulation with reference only to the subject of the objection; FHWA’s responsibility to carry out all actions under this MOA that are not the subjects of the objection will remain unchanged.

E. Resolution of Objections by the Public

At any time during implementation of the measures stipulated in this MOA, should any objection pertaining to any such measure, or its manner of implementation, be raised by a member of the public, FHWA shall notify the parties of this MOA and take the objection into account, consulting with the objector and, should the objector so request, with any of the parties to this MOA to resolve the objection.

F. Duration

This MOA will expire if its terms are not carried out within five (5) years from the date of its execution. Prior to such time the FHWA may consult with the other signatories to reconsider the terms of the MOA and amend it in accordance with Administrative Stipulation C above.

G. Termination

a. Any signatory may terminate this MOA by providing notice to the other parties, provided that the parties will consult during the period prior to termination to seek agreement on amendments or other actions that would avoid termination. Termination of this MOA will require compliance with 36 C.F.R. § 800.

b. If at any time during the course of the Project, the County cancels the Project or withdraws its request for federal funding, the County will so notify the FHWA. The FHWA will notify the other signatories to the MOA and the ACHP that it is terminating the Agreement. The FHWA, in consultation with those parties, will consider the effects of any Project-related activities undertaken prior to Project cancellation or withdrawal of the funding request, and the FHWA will assess its responsibilities and obligations pursuant to 36 C.F.R. § 800 and determine steps to terminate the MOA.
H. Severability

The provisions of this MOA shall be severable. If any phrase, clause, sentence or provision of this MOA is declared to be contrary to the Constitution of Pennsylvania or of the United States or of the laws of the Commonwealth the applicability thereof to any government, agency, person or circumstance is held invalid, the validity of the remainder of this MOA and the applicability thereof to any government, agency, person or circumstance shall not be affected thereby.

I. Assignment

The responsibilities included in this MOA may not be assigned by any party to this MOA, either in whole or in part, without the written consent of the Signatories.

J. Notices

a. The contact person for each of the signatories and concurring parties of the MOA shall be the following:

PHASE III ARCHAEOLOGICAL WORK PLAN
SCHUYLKILL RIVER TRAIL – CHESTER COUNTY
PHASE III ARCHAEOLOGICAL INVESTIGATIONS
SITE SRT-3 (36CH1000) and SRT-4 (36CH1001)
(01/31/2018)

Introduction

Phase III Archaeological Survey work will be performed for the Schuylkill River Trail, Chester County, Pennsylvania. The cultural resources work will be undertaken in accordance with state and federal mandates which protect significant cultural resources such as historical and archaeological sites. Federal and State mandates for cultural resources protection include: the National Environmental Policy Act of 1969; the National Historic Preservation Act of 1966 (as amended); and the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania State Act No. 1978-273 (PA History Code). This work will be performed in accordance with Pennsylvania Historical and Museum Commission "Cultural Resource Management in Pennsylvania: Guidelines for Archaeological Survey and Mitigation" (Revised 2016).

Sites SRT-3 (36CH1000) and SRT-4 (36CH1001) meet the criteria for listing in the National Register of Historic Places under Criterion D, as both sites contain material likely to provide information important to our understanding of local and regional prehistory. The archaeological deposits are significant only for their informational value and do not warrant preservation in place. Data Recovery has been recommended for the portions of the sites which are situated within the APE for the project.

The portion of Site SRT-3 (36CH1000) that is within the project APE extends 91 meters in length by 5 meters in width (0.455 hectares). The site is situated within the Triassic Lowland Section of the Piedmont Physiographic Province and on an upland landscape close to the Schuylkill River. The presence of intact deposits and features at SRT-3 (36CH1000) suggests the potential for addressing research questions concerning prehistoric lifeways in eastern Pennsylvania (Table 1).

The portion of Site SRT-4 (36CH1001) that is within the project APE extends 45 meters in length by 5 meters in width (0.0225 hectares). The site is situated within the Triassic Lowland Section of the Piedmont Physiographic Province and on an upland landscape close to the Schuylkill River. The presence of intact deposits and features at SRT-4 (36CH1001) suggests the potential for addressing research questions concerning prehistoric lifeways in eastern Pennsylvania (Table 2).

Phase III Archaeological Survey

The Phase III Archaeological Survey work will begin with more intensive background research. Both sites SRT-3 (36CH1000) and SRT-4 (36CH1001) will be placed within a broader context of the Schuylkill River drainage. Comparisons to the Kingsley, Robertson and Roberts (1990) hypothesis will be made along with comparisons to sites discovered recently within the Schuylkill River drainage. Research will focus on data from sites such as the Rivercrest Site (36Mg0112) (Rinehart, Perazio and Boesch 2002; Harris 2002), the Barbadoes I Site (36Mg0286) (Lewis 1999), the Keystone II Site (36Mg0354) (Affleck, Moore and Abbott 2002), the Schuylkill Crossing I Site (36Mg0393)

<th>Research Questions</th>
<th>Phase III Results</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>1) Is there the potential for finding stratified deposits and/or intact features?</td>
<td>The artifacts are concentrated in stacked plow zone. Two precontact features were found during the Phase II archaeological investigations. Additional archaeological excavation and the stripping of the area should reveal more precontact features.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>2) Does the site represent multiple occupations?</td>
<td>The present data suggest that the site is single component, but a contaminated C-14 date could represent a later period component. Additional archaeological excavation is expected to identify additional features with charcoal and temporally diagnostic artifacts.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>3) Is it possible to define horizontally discrete occupations and/or activity areas?</td>
<td>The Phase II archaeological data suggests the presence of distinct lithic workshop areas. Additionally, the presence of features may suggest living and or activity areas. Future investigations will elucidate the intrasite patterning to the site.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>4) Is it possible to ascertain site function?</td>
<td>The current information provided by the combination of artifacts and features appears to be insufficient for a determination precise site function. Additional investigations should answer questions regarding site function.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>5) Is it possible to infer statements about lithic procurement, tool manufacture, tool use, and discard?</td>
<td>Lithic procurement can be inferred based on the site’s proximity to the Piedmont Quartz sources and the Hardyston jasper and quartzite sources. Lithic analysis in tandem with the distributional patterns of the artifacts will help to determine lithic procurement, tool manufacture, tool use, and discard. The presence of extra local lithic will provide data on precontact interaction during the Middle Woodland Period in the Lower Schuylkill River Valley.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>6) Kingsley, Robertson and Roberts (1990) hypothesize that only hunting and gathering forays were undertaken in the Lower Schuylkill Valley. Is there sufficient data to indicate that this hypothesis is invalid?</td>
<td>Site SRT-3 (36CH1000) may represent multiple habitation occupations. Recent data from archaeological sites along the Schuylkill River has provided evidence for occupational residency. The data from Site SRT-3 (36CH1000) in conjunction with other recent work, will be applied to addressing this regional settlement question.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>7) Is there a difference between sites located along the Schuylkill River and those are located away from the river along small tributaries?</td>
<td>The nature of the Schuylkill river based habitation and procurement type sites and their relationship to areas removed from the Schuylkill River are poorly understood. Site SRT-3 (36CH1000) will provide an important link into this regional comparison.</td>

The Pennsylvania Archaeological Site Survey (PASS) files will also be researched for an up-to-date compilation of site data for the Schuylkill watershed. The information collected from these sources will provide a comparative framework for interpreting the settlement patterns of the Schuylkill watershed, and specifically, how sites SRT-3 (36CH1000) and SRT-4 (36CH1001) relate to these previously identified sites.

Site SRT-3 (36CH1000)

SRT-3 (36CH1000) measures approximately 91 meters in length by 5 meters in width (0.455 hectares) within the APE. Data Recovery field work will consist of a combination of 1-meter square test units and the mechanical stripping of the 91 x 5 meter site area. One-meter squares will be placed at a 2.5 meter interval between and flanking the previously dug test units along the linear extent of the APE. This procedure will produce a more detailed resolution of the archaeological remains and subsequently allow for the precise selection of block excavation areas to facilitate a more extensive spatial interpretation of the site. Fifty one-meter square test units will be excavated. In combination with the Phase II archaeological testing this will result in the excavation of approximately 15% of the portion of the site within the APE. The test units will be excavated by natural strata to a depth of approximately 50-60 centimeters below the surface. All hand excavated soils will be screened through quarter-inch hardware cloth and each unit will be carefully recorded, including stratigraphy and location.

Subsequent to the excavation of the 1-meter squares, the APE will be mechanically stripped of the upper soil horizon to search for cultural features. Cultural features have the greatest potential to provide significant data for the reconstruction and interpretation of the site. The additional information could potentially contribute to a more comprehensive and definitive interpretation of the site with the various cultural components. Features are likely to be mostly intact and contain component specific artifacts with datable C-14. At least 50% of the area within the APE will be mechanically stripped to the depth of the subsoil in order to more fully expose features. All features identified will be drawn, photographed, and mapped. Each cultural feature will be sectioned in an effort to identify the nature of the feature and the temporal period of the feature. Where appropriate, soil samples of feature fills will be taken for later laboratory analysis. A total of ten cultural features are anticipated.

All artifactual material recovered will be processed, inventoried, cataloged, and analyzed. Approximately 4000 artifacts are anticipated to be recovered. Artifactual material will be cleaned, labeled, and packaged in accordance with the curatorial guidelines established by the PHMC (2014). Artifacts will be analyzed to infer aspects of site age, cultural affiliation, and function. Details of artifact size, shape, and other morphological characteristics will be recorded. The specific analytical techniques to be used will include at a minimum, typological analysis of precontact projectile points and ceramics, identification of raw materials of lithic artifacts, and analysis of physical and morphological characteristics of lithic debitage. Tools and flakes will be examined with the aid of a stereo zoom microscope for evidence of use-wear. At a minimum, pottery recovered will be examined for evidence of manufacturing technique, temper, decoration, and cultural affiliation. Distributional and functional information will be plotted, compared, and contrasted. Flakes and debris will be examined for evidence of cortex, use-wear, thermal treatment, and other features. Soil samples will be floated in order to recover small artifacts and organic materials. Seed and other floral data will be identified as to type and analyzed with respect to seasonality and site interpretation. A total of ten soil samples are anticipated. C-14 dates will be obtained for carbon samples removed from significant features or deposits such as post holes, storage pits containing significant remains, etc. A total of ten C-14 samples are anticipated to be collected and submitted for analysis.

Site SRT-4 (36CH1001)

SRT-4 (36CH1001) measures approximately 45 meters in length by 5 meters in width (0.0225 hectares) within the APE. Data Recovery field work will consist of a combination of 1-meter square test units and the mechanical stripping of the 45 x 5 meter site area. One-meter squares will be placed at a 2.5 meter interval between and flanking the previously dug test units along the linear extent of the APE. This procedure will produce a more detailed resolution of the archaeological remains and subsequently allow for the precise selection of block excavation areas to facilitate a more extensive spatial interpretation of the site. Twenty-five one-meter square test units will be excavated. In combination with the Phase II archaeological testing this will result in the excavation of approximately 15% of the portion of the site within the APE. The test units will be excavated by natural strata to a depth of approximately 50-60 centimeters below the surface. Where appropriate, soil samples of feature fills will be taken for later laboratory analysis. A total of ten cultural features are anticipated.

All artifactual material recovered will be processed, inventoried, cataloged, and analyzed. Approximately 1700 artifacts are anticipated to be recovered. Artifactual material will be cleaned, labeled, and packaged in accordance with the curatorial guidelines established by the PHMC (2014). Artifacts will be analyzed to infer aspects of site age, cultural affiliation, and function. Details of artifact size, shape, and other morphological characteristics will be recorded. Report

A Phase III Archaeological Survey report will be prepared that documents the methodologies used, fieldwork performed, analysis undertaken, and conclusions reached. The report will be prepared giving the details of the results of the archaeological testing. The report will be fully illustrated with maps, photographs, and drawings. The report will include a bibliography of references, and a catalog of the artifacts recovered. One draft electronic copy will be submitted for review by the client. Final archival submissions will include two hard copies and three electronic copies on CDs.

Public Dissemination

A public dissemination document will be prepared. The results of the Phase III archaeological survey will be compiled into an e-document in poster format that provides a document for the general public that will be accessible online. The e-document is anticipated to contain a brief outline of the work performed, the significance of the archaeological deposits at both sites. The text will be written for the general public, and the e-document will be fully illustrated. It is anticipated upon completion that the e-document will be loaded onto a PennDOT designated website accessible for public viewing. One predraft, one draft, and one final copy of the e-document are anticipated.

In addition to the public dissemination document it is anticipated that presentations will to professional organizations and/or the general public discussing the findings of the archaeological work performed. The work will entail the preparation and presentation of a slide-illustrated or video-assisted lecture geared for a general/or professional audience, which will expand on portions of the information presented in the Phase III archaeological work. A presentation is anticipated at the local chapter of the Society for Pennsylvania Archaeology, and one or more regional archaeological conferences.
