Email: Chester County Planning Commission, 2012; Chester County Parks and Recreation, Battle of Brandywine: Historic Resource Survey and Animated Map, 2010.

KEY PROPOSED REVISIONS
1. The Nine Fords
2. Gen. Cornwallis’s Flanking March
3. The Bradywine Creek
4. Gen. Knyphausen’s Attack Route
5. Engagements

1. The Nine Fords
2. Gen. Cornwallis’s Flanking March
3. The Bradywine Creek
4. Gen. Knyphausen’s Attack Route
5. Engagements

This corridor is 200 yards from the road centerline.
This corridor is 100 feet from the Creek centerline.
This area includes an Engagement Zone.
This area is 100 feet west of the Creek centerline.
This area is 100 feet from the Creek centerline.
This area is 200 yards southwest of the intersection.
This area extends 200 yards south of the road centerline.
This area extends the road centerline.
This area follows the road centerline.
This area includes an Engagement Zone.
This area includes a cluster of historic resource parcels.
This area includes an Engagement Zone.
This area includes a cluster of historic resource parcels.
This corridor is 200 yards from the road centerline.
This area includes a cluster of historic resource parcels.
This corridor is 200 yards from the road centerline.
This area includes a cluster of historic resource parcels.
This area now includes only non-developed lands.
This area extends 200 yards south of the road centerline.
This area follows the road centerline.
This area extends the road centerline.
This area includes a cluster of historic resource parcels.
This area includes a cluster of historic resource parcels.
This corridor is 200 yards from the road centerline.
This corridor is 100 feet from the Creek centerline.
This area includes a cluster of historic resource parcels.
This area includes a cluster of historic resource parcels.
This corridor is 100 feet from the Creek centerline.
This area includes a cluster of historic resource parcels.