POST SENTENCING RIGHTS FOR PROBATION/PAROLE VIOLATIONS
Pa.R.Crim.P.708(C)(3)

I understand that:

1. I have thirty (30) days from the date I am sentenced on a violation of probation, parole, or intermediate punishment to file an Appeal with the Superior Court of Pennsylvania.
2. I have ten (10) days from the date I am sentenced to file a Motion to Modify the Sentence.
3. The filing of a Motion to Modify Sentence will NOT extend the thirty (30) day appeal period.
4. If I wish to have a lawyer to represent me in an Appeal or Motion to Modify Sentence and cannot afford one, I may apply to the Court and one may be appointed to me free of charge.
5. If I cannot afford the costs of filing such an Appeal or Motion to Modify Sentence, I may apply to the Court and I may be permitted to proceed without payment of costs.

 DEFENDANT’S ATTORNEY
 (As attorney for the above defendant, I acknowledge that I have thoroughly explained to (him) (her) the rights set forth in this document. I certify that I am satisfied that the defendant understands (his) (her) rights.)
