The Chester County Planning Commission defines Protected Open Space as, "Land and water areas that have little or no development; are used for recreation or preserving cultural or natural resources, including productive agricultural soils, and are protected either permanently or on a long term basis."