Internal Auditor's Report

Magisterial District Judge Jeffrey J. Valocchi
District Court 15-4-02
231 Boot Road
Downingtown, PA 19335

Report on the Financial Statements

We have audited the accompanying financial statements of Magisterial District Court 15-4-02 (District Court), which comprises the statements of assets and liabilities arising from cash transactions as of December 31, 2014 and 2013, and the related statements of cash receipts, disbursements and cash balances for the years then ended, and the related notes to the financial statements.

Management's Responsibility for the Financial Statements

Management is responsible for the preparation and fair presentation of these financial statements in accordance with the cash basis of accounting described in Note 1; this includes determining that the cash basis of accounting is an acceptable basis for the preparation of the financial statements in the circumstances. Management is also responsible for the design, implementation, and maintenance of internal control relevant to the preparation and fair presentation of financial statements that are free from material misstatements, whether due to fraud or error.

Auditor's Responsibility

Our responsibility is to annually audit the accounts of every magistrate or district judge within the County and to report the results of such audits to the Chester County Commissioners, the Chester County Court of Common Pleas, the Auditor General of Pennsylvania, and to the governing body of each political subdivision which is entitled to receive funds collected on its behalf by the District Court.

Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these financial statements based on our audit. We conducted our audit in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America and the Government Auditing Standards issued by the Comptroller General of the United States. Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free of material misstatement.

An audit involves performing procedures to obtain audit evidence about the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. The procedures selected depend on the auditor's judgment, including the assessment of the risks of material misstatement of the financial statements, whether due to fraud or error. In making those risk assessments, the auditor considers internal control relevant to the entity's preparation and fair presentation of the financial statements in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the entity's internal control. Accordingly, we express no such opinion. An audit also includes evaluating the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of significant estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall financial statement presentation.

We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our opinion.

Opinion

In our opinion, the financial statements referred to above present fairly, in all material respects, the assets and liabilities arising from cash transactions of the District Court as of December 31, 2014 and 2013, and its cash receipts, disbursements and cash balances for the years then ended in accordance with the cash basis of accounting described in Note 1.

Basis of Accounting

We draw attention to Note 1 of the financial statements, which describes the basis of accounting. The financial statements are prepared on the cash basis of accounting, which is a basis of accounting other than accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America. Our opinion is not modified with respect to this matter.

Other Matter

In accordance with Government Auditing Standards, Internal Audit has also issued a separate report dated October 27, 2015 on our evaluation of the District Court's internal control over financial reporting and on our tests of compliance with certain provisions of laws, regulations, policies and/or procedures. That report is an integral part of an audit performed in accordance with Government Auditing Standards and is to be read in conjunction with this report in considering the results of our audit.

FOR THE YEARS ENDED DECEMBER 31, 2014 and 2013

Note 1 - Summary of Significant Accounting Principles

Background and Reporting Entity

The financial statements of the District Court include only those transactions handled directly by the District Court. These transactions include the collection of costs, fines, bail, and restitution, as well as the subsequent disbursement of these funds to the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, to related political subdivisions, and to citizens served by the District Court. As such, the District Court acts as a conduit for the Commonwealth, local municipalities, and constituents it serves. Consequently, the District Court's cash balance at any point in time represents undisbursed funds to one (or all) of these parties. For financial statement purposes, these undisbursed funds are included as a liability of the District Court.

The actual operating expenses of the District Court are paid by the County of Chester, except for the Magisterial District Judge's salary which is paid by the Commonwealth. These costs include the salaries and wages of district court employees, fringe benefits, office rent, postage, telephone, office supplies, computer/LAN use, and furniture and equipment. These costs are not included in the audited Statement of Cash Receipts, Disbursements, and Cash Balance.

Basis of Accounting

The books and records of the District Court are maintained on the cash basis of accounting. Consequently, receipts are recognized when received rather than when assessed or otherwise due and disbursements are recognized when paid rather than when the obligation is incurred. Accordingly, the accompanying statements do not present the assets, liabilities, receipts, disbursements, and cash balance in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles.

Note 2 - Legal Matters

Our audit disclosed no pending litigation involving the District Court or its Magisterial District Judge (Jeffrey J. Valocchi) that would affect the financial statements for the year ended December 31, 2014.

MAGISTERIAL DISTRICT COURT 15-4-02

FOR THE YEARS ENDED DECEMBER 31, 2014 and 2013

Note 3 – District Court Realignment

In April 2013, Magisterial District Judge Rita Arnold resigned from office after being charged with two (2) criminal offenses – “tampering with records” and “obstruction of administration of law or other governmental function”. The charges were brought by the Attorney General’s Office who accused the Judge of intentionally obstructing the law by failing to properly perform her duties as an elected magisterial judge, and for concealing records pertaining to wrongdoing. In June 2013, the former magisterial judge entered a guilty plea in the Chester County Court of Common Pleas and was later sentenced to 16 to 32 months in state prison.

Due to the vacancy in this District Court, The Honorable James P. MacElree II, President Judge Chester County included within his “Proposed Reestablishment Plan for the Magisterial Districts of the Fifteenth Judicial Districts” that the municipalities which existed under District Court 15-2-06 be re-aligned to District Court 15-1-01 and District Court 15-4-02. In addition, the building previously occupied by District Court 15-2-06 would be assumed by Magisterial District Judge Jeffrey J. Valocchi effective November 30, 2013 and would become the new location for District Court 15-4-02.

The “Proposed Reestablishment Plan for the Magisterial District Courts of the Fifteenth Judicial Districts” was amended and the “official” elimination of District Court 15-2-06 did not become effective until August 1, 2014. Until that date, the office staff of District Court 15-4-02 and Magisterial District Judge Jeffrey J. Valocchi performed all duties related to District Court 15-2-06 in addition to the normal duties of their own District Court. On August 1, 2014, the Administrative Office of Pennsylvania Courts (AOPC) transitioned the dockets for all open cases belonging to District Court 15-2-06 to District Court 15-4-02 and District Court 15-2-06 was officially eliminated.

Report on Internal Control Over Financial Reporting and on Compliance and Other Matters

In planning our audit of the financial statements of District Court 15-4-02 (District Court) as of and for the year ended December 31, 2014, in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America, we considered the District Court's internal control over financial reporting as a basis for designing our audit procedures for the purpose of expressing our opinion on the financial statements, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the District Court's internal control over financial reporting. Accordingly, we do not express an opinion on the effectiveness of the District Court's internal control over financial reporting.

Our consideration of internal control over financial reporting was for the limited purpose described in the preceding paragraph and was not designed to identify all deficiencies in internal control over financial reporting that might be significant deficiencies or material weaknesses and therefore, there can be no assurance that all significant deficiencies or material weaknesses have been identified.

A deficiency in internal control exists when the design or operation of a control does not allow management or employees, in the normal course of performing their assigned functions, to prevent, or detect and correct misstatements on a timely basis. A material weakness is a deficiency, or a combination of deficiencies, in internal control, such that there is a reasonable possibility that a material misstatement of the District Court's financial statements will not be prevented, or detected and corrected on a timely basis.

As part of obtaining reasonable assurance about whether the District Court's financial statements are free of material misstatement, we performed tests of its compliance with certain provisions of laws and regulations, noncompliance with which could have a direct and material effect on the determination of financial statement amounts. However, providing an opinion on compliance with those provisions was not an objective of our audit, and accordingly, we do not express such an opinion. The results of our tests disclosed no instances of noncompliance or other matters that are required to be reported under Government Auditing Standards.

Report on Internal Control Over Financial Reporting and on Compliance and Other Matters

We noted certain matters that we reported to management of the District Court in a separate letter dated October 27, 2015, regarding cash adjustments, undisbursed funds, and stale-dated checks.

This report is intended for the information of the Chester County Commissioners, the Chester County Court of Common Pleas, the Auditor General of Pennsylvania, and all other political affiliates served by the District Court. This report is, however, a matter of public record, and its distribution is not limited.
