As of December 31, 2019

The Chester County Planning Commission defines Protected Open Space as: “Land and water areas that have been set aside for development or use for recreation or preserving public or educational use, including agriculturaluse, and are protected for preservation permanently in a long-term manner.”

This information presented is based on data received from various contributing sources. The information and data provided may be subject to various limitations. The map, in the event of a conflict, should be referred to the actual site of the lands as noted.

1. The Chester County Planning Commission defines Protected Open Space as: “Land and water areas that have been set aside for development or use for recreation or preserving public or educational use, including agricultural use, and are protected for preservation permanently in a long-term manner.”

2. The information presented is based on data received from various contributing sources. The information and data provided may be subject to various limitations. The map, in the event of a conflict, should be referred to the actual site of the lands as noted.

3. Open space is in a list of parcels that are owned by a land trust and that have been identified on the file of the Chester County Water Resources Authority, or the Chester County Planning Commission, or the Chester County Planning Board, or the Chester County Planning Board, or the Chester County Planning Board, or the Chester County Planning Board.

4. The map was digitally compiled for internal mapping use and development use by the County of Chester, Pennsylvania. It is based on data provided by various agencies and is subject to errors. The Chester County Planning Commission makes no warranties, whether express or implied, as to the accuracy of the data or the completeness of the information contained on the map. The data is subject to errors, and the Chester County Planning Commission makes no warranty or representation of any kind, including, but not limited to the accuracy, completeness, currency, or suitability of the data for any purpose or use, except for the purpose of research and development.