

CHESTER COUNTY CUSTODY SELF-REPRESENTATION AND FORMS

STOP! Was/is mother married to anyone other than the alleged father of child at the time of birth? If so, spouse must be included in case.

(Who is on the birth certificate?)

Family Court Administration directs self-represented litigants to the following websites for custody information and forms.

<http://www.chesco.org>:

A-Z services; family court; custody; Chester County Local Custody Rules and Forms*; go to bottom of page Rule 1915.15A and print:

- 1) Notice & Order to appear initial/modification
- 2) Custody Crimes Affidavit

AND

<http://www.pacourts.us/learn/representing-yourself/custody-proceedings>

Child custody in Pennsylvania, Forms and print:

- 3) Self-Represented Party Entry of Appearance
- 4) Form 1 Complaint for Custody Parents

CAUTION: LITIGANTS ARE STRONGLY ENCOURAGED TO SEEK LEGAL ADVICE FROM A LAWYER WITH EXPERIENCE IN FAMILY LAW MATTERS. THESE WEBSITES ONLY PROVIDE GENERAL INFORMATION AND FORMS AND DO NOT GUARANTEE THAT YOU ARE FILING THE PROPER PAPERWORK OR THAT ALL NEEDED ALLEGATIONS (FACTS) ARE INCLUDED.

Individuals seeking legal representation may contact the Chester County Bar Association Lawyer Referral Service, 610-429-1500 or visit their website <http://www.chesco.org>

Individuals seeking free legal representation may contact Legal Aid of Southeastern Pennsylvania, Legal Aid Intake Unite at 1-877-429-5994 OR go to lasp.org and apply on-line.

THIS MAY NOT BE AN EXCLUSIVE LIST OF FORMS FOR YOUR PARTICULAR CASE