Internal Audit has audited the accounts of the Office of Adult Probation (APO) in conjunction with the Office of the Clerk of Courts as of December 31, 2010, and has compiled the attached Statement of Assets and Liabilities and the related Statements of Receipts, Disbursements, and Cash Balances for the year then ended. It is Internal Audit’s responsibility to audit annually the accounts of any office receiving money for use by the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania and to report the results of such audits to the Chester County Commissioners and the Chester County Court of Common Pleas. It is management’s responsibility to maintain, update, and reconcile these accounts on a continuous basis.

Our audit was conducted in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards and the Government Auditing Standards issued by the Comptroller General of the United States. Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit in a manner that will provide reasonable assurance that the accounts are free of material misstatement and that amounts are properly supported and approved.

As described in Note 1, the accompanying financial statements are prepared on the cash basis of accounting, which is a comprehensive basis of accounting other than generally accepted accounting principles. Accordingly, the statements referred to above are not intended to present the financial position and results of operations of APO in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles.

In our opinion, accounts maintained by APO are stated fairly as of December 31, 2010. Consequently, the corresponding financial statements prepared by Internal Audit present fairly, in all material respects, the assets and liabilities of APO as of December 31, 2010, and the receipts, disbursements, and cash balances for the year then ended.

In accordance with Government Auditing Standards, Internal Audit has also issued a report dated October 27, 2011, which provides our evaluation of APO’s internal control over financial reporting and on our tests of compliance with certain provisions of laws, regulations, policies and/or procedures. That report is an integral part of an audit performed in accordance with Government Auditing Standards and should be read in conjunction with this report in considering the results of our audit.

Note 1 - Summary of Significant Accounting Policies

Background and Reporting Entity

The APO provides supervision of offenders and facilitates offender rehabilitation. Additionally, the department compiles investigative reports that assist the Court in making sentencing and parole decisions.

There are eight programs under which the APO provides services:

General Supervision – This program includes the probation officers assigned to supervise general probation, parole or Accelerated Rehabilitative Disposition (ARD) cases.

Pre-Sentence Investigation – Responsible for completing Pre-Sentence Investigation (PSI) reports for the Court.

Collections – Responsible to collect fines, fees, costs and restitution ordered by the Court.

Intensive Supervision Programs – Provides intensive supervision services to a variety of high risk, high need clients including sex offenders, mental health offenders, repeat domestic batterers, and chronic drug and alcohol abusers.

Intermediate Punishment – Provides electronic monitoring and intensive supervision services to offenders approved for the Intermediate Punishment Program by the Court. Provides a safe alternative for non-violent prison bound offenders.

Drug Court – Provides an alternative for those convicted of non-violent drug offenses including intensive supervision, drug testing, treatment and non-traditional court intervention to stop drug abuse.

Community Service – Provides a coordinated and supervised approach to the completion of community service by offenders as ordered by the Court.

Bilingual Supervision – This program includes the supervision of Spanish speaking clients ordered to participate in any of the four major programs.

The actual operating expenses of the APO are paid by the County of Chester. These costs include the salary and wages of office employees, fringe benefits, postage, telephone, office supplies, computer/LAN use, and furniture and equipment. These costs are not included in the audited Statements of Cash Receipts, Disbursements, and Cash Balances.

Basis of Accounting

The books and records of the APO are maintained on the cash basis of accounting. Consequently, receipts are recognized when received rather than when assessed or otherwise due, and disbursements are recognized when paid rather than when the obligation is incurred. Accordingly, the accompanying statements do not present the assets, liabilities, receipts, disbursements, and cash balances in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles.

Note 2 - Legal Matters

Our audit disclosed no pending litigation involving APO or its Chief Probation Officer (Christopher Murphy) for the year ended December 31, 2010.

Note 3 – CPCMS System

The Administrative Office of Pennsylvania Courts (AOPC) initiated a project in 2001 to develop and implement a statewide Common Pleas Court Case Management System (CPCMS). CPCMS is now installed in the Commonwealth’s sixty judicial districts in sixty-seven counties; CPCMS was implemented in Chester County February 6, 2006. CPCMS provides case management tracking for the offices of the Clerks of Court, Court Administration and Common Pleas judges and their staffs. Additional user groups include county fiscal offices, probation departments and limited write access for criminal justice-related offices (District Attorney, Sheriff and Prison) connected to a county network.

All case-related funds and financial transactions receipted after the implementation of CPCMS must be maintained in and tracked through CPCMS; the Clerk of Courts (Clerk) was required to establish new bank accounts for this purpose.

CPCMS requires that the records and funds for transactions for all fines, costs and restitution be maintained in one bank account “belonging to” the Clerk, regardless of whether one or more offices or departments actually receipt or disburse all or part of those funds, and that all transactions for that account to be recorded in CPCMS. Prior to CPCMS, the majority of fines, costs and restitution was collected through payments made to Chester County Adult Probation (APO). Some disbursements were done by the Clerk; however, most disbursements of fines, costs and restitution were done by vouchers prepared by APO for disbursement by the County. The Clerk established the required new “Clerk of Courts / Adult Probation” bank account and consulted with AOPC and with Chester County APO, Court Administration, DCIS, Controller and Finance to establish procedures to best implement and administer the new joint bank account which contains co-mingled funds receipted and disbursed according to CPCMS requirements (none of these funds are now disbursed through the Chester County Controller or Treasurer). As a result, the financial statements of each office must be combined into one set of financial statements in respect to the shared bank account (the Fines, Costs and Restitution account).

Note 4 – Automation Fee Fund

The Clerk established a new fund in 2004 pursuant to the Pennsylvania Clerk of Courts Fee Bill; 42 PCS 1725.4. In addition to any other fee authorized by law, an automation fee of not more than $5 may be charged and collected by the Clerk for the initiation of any action or legal proceeding. The automation fee shall be deposited into a special Clerk of Courts automation fund established in each county. Monies in the special fund shall be used solely for the purpose of automation and continued automation update of the Office of the Clerk of Courts. Until 2007, the Clerk maintained this fund in a Deferred Revenue account on the County general ledger. In September 2007 the Clerk opened a separate bank account and certificate of deposit to maintain these funds.

Report on Internal Control Over Financial Reporting and on Compliance and Other Matters

In planning our audit of the financial statements of the Office of Adult Probation (APO) as of and for the year ended December 31, 2010, in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America, we considered APO’s internal control over financial reporting as a basis for designing our audit procedures for the purpose of expressing our opinion on the financial statements, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of APO’s internal control over financial reporting. Accordingly, we do not express an opinion on the effectiveness of APO’s internal control over financial reporting.

Our consideration of internal control over financial reporting was for the limited purpose described in the preceding paragraph and was not designed to identify all deficiencies in internal control over financial reporting that might be significant deficiencies or material weaknesses and therefore, there can be no assurance that all significant deficiencies or material weaknesses have been identified.

A deficiency in internal control exists when the design or operation of a control does not allow management or employees, in the normal course of performing their assigned functions, to prevent, or detect and correct misstatements on a timely basis. A material weakness is a deficiency, or a combination of deficiencies, in internal control, such that there is a reasonable possibility that a material misstatement of APO’s financial statements will not be prevented, or detected and corrected on a timely basis.

As part of obtaining reasonable assurance about whether APO’s financial statements are free of material misstatement, we performed tests of its compliance with certain provisions of laws and regulations, noncompliance with which could have a direct and material effect on the determination of financial statement amounts. However, providing an opinion on compliance with those provisions was not an objective of our audit, and accordingly, we do not express such an opinion. The results of our tests disclosed no instances of noncompliance or other matters that are required to be reported under Government Auditing Standards.
Report on Internal Control Over Financial Reporting and on Compliance and Other Matters

We noted certain matters that we reported to management of APO in a separate letter dated October 27, 2011. They included the following:

- Recording / Recordkeeping with respect to manual and cash receipts
- Compliance with policies and procedures relating to manual and cash receipts

This report is intended for the information of the Chester County Commissioners and the Chester County Court of Common Pleas. This report is, however, a matter of public record, and its distribution is not limited.

SUMMARY OF EXIT CONFERENCE
FOR THE YEAR ENDED DECEMBER 31, 2010

Due to the nature of the audit findings and recommendations, an exit conference was not warranted for the 2010 audit. Management of the Office of Adult Probation has chosen to accept the report as presented.
