PRESS RELEASE

Warrant Issued For Man Involved In West Chester Attack on Victim With Cerebral Palsy

Chester County District Attorney Tom Hogan announced that there is an active bench warrant for Barry Baker. Baker is the man accused of assault for punching a man with cerebral palsy outside a 7-11 in West Chester, PA. The warrant was issued by the Chester County Adult Probation Office for violations of probation/parole. The warrant is attached hereto. Baker's attorney has been advised of the warrant. Baker also failed to appear for a domestic relations matter today in Chester County and the Domestic Relations Department has issued an additional warrant.

The West Chester Police Department, Chester County Fugitive Unit, and other law enforcement agencies have been attempting to take Baker into custody. Anybody with information on his whereabouts should contact the West Chester Police at 610-696-2700.

District Attorney Hogan stated, "The defendant should turn himself in immediately to address these warrants. We will not quit until we find him."
